

Big Canyon Creek Project Application

DEADLINE : November 30, 2005

Applications accepted for conservation projects to be installed in 2006. Cost-share dollars are available for projects in the Big Canyon Creek watershed for the improvement of fish habitat.

Projects include erosion control practices, tree planting, fencing, water developments, grass seeding, and in-stream fish habitat projects.

2006 Fish Habitat Improvement Project requests

Application Process:

Mail, fax, or call the Nez Perce Soil and Water Conservation District with the following information:

Name, Address, phone number, e-mail address (optional), type of project you are interested in, and best time to reach you. Or fill out this application and return to the Nez Perce Soil and Water Conservation District.

Fax: 208-843-2931 Phone: 208-843-2931

Information must be received by November 30, 2005.

Application Information

Project type (check all that apply):

Erosion Control
In-stream fish habitat
Livestock water system
Bio-control of Weeds
Pond/sediment basin
Animal Waste
Other

Site Information:

Location (give road name, stream name, or township,section,range) or other description:

If your project is selected, will you be able to ensure it is installed in 2006?

Land ownership (check all that apply):

Owned by applicant
Rented/leased by applicant

Land location (check all that apply):

Six Mile
Post-Hole
Nichols
Other

Application Information:

Name: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State/Province: _____
ZIP/Postal Code: _____ Phone: _____

If returning, please complete questions above. Applications will be processed by April 15,2006 and applicants contacted regarding their application.

Nez Perce
Soil and Water Conservation District

PO Box 131
Culdesac ID 83524